原発を進めてきたのはエリートでもなんでもなくて下請けの労働者ですよ。床だとかパイプだとかボロ雑巾で放射能を拭いて。つまりね労働者達の手作業がなかったら原発ってのは実は動かなかったってことですよ。

—写真家・樋口健二

Who have kept nuclear energy running? It's not the elites, but the subcontracted workers who would be given some beat up rugs to wipe radioactive contamination off floors and pipes. I mean, without their manual labor, nuclear power plants would not even have moved.
